Would you like to be part of our new singing group?

At present, we call ourselves the Pentecost Singers and have a vocal strength of twelve. We have sung at several services since our debut at Easter. We meet most Tuesday evenings at 5 p.m. to rehearse for about 45 minutes and then meet with the organist at about 9 a.m. on the Sunday. We have a flexible approach and tailor the music to our potential. Currently, we prepare items to sing during the distribution of the sacraments and learn new settings of the Gloria, Sanctus, for example, to share with the congregation. We would like to add a few more singers to the group to allow for natural unavailability reasons. There is no audition or the need to be a music reader. You can try us without any commitment to continue. To support the learning, tailor-made recordings of the music can be made available and sent via email.

If you are interested in knowing more, please speak with me.

Andrew Maddocks (Churchwarden)
