The Patronal Festival Weekend Report

The Saturday highlight was, of course, the Cream Teas during the afternoon. As usual, Lenore Clarke and the superb, hard-working band of assistants provided sumptuously for the many people who came. The sun and warm weather obliged us with the opportunity to sit outside and spend a gentle hour or two conversing with friends and strangers. The raffle added many extra pounds to the grand total profit of £510 towards the costs incurred in keeping the church door open.

Sunday Eucharist service was well supported by both people and weather. Our newly formed Pentecost Singers, with the support of the organist, Dr Camilla Jarrot, added a sense of calm and beauty with their arrangement of 'Be still, for the presence of the Lord' during the distribution of the Sacraments.

Choral Evensong at 5 p.m. was sung by ADHOC Voices, in which they sang the anthem, 'This is the Record of John the Baptist' by Orlando Gibbons, one time organist at St Pauls Cathedral and died exactly 400 years ago. A 'goodly' number attended and heard the wonderful sound of the counter-tenor soloist. ADHOC Voices was directed by Andrew Trehwella.

Women's Refuge

As you might already know, there is a donation box in the church for the Women's Refuge. They are currently in desperate need of women's toiletries and tinned/packet food, as well as the other usual items listed below.

If you can help, please do:

Women's toiletries, tinned and packet food, single bedding, curtains, towels, tea towels, crockery, cutlery, saucepans, mixing bowls, cooking pans, and utensils

Please NO clothing and NO toys

Thank you

The Home Service

The 'Home Service' is a weekly programme that brings Christian worship into your front room. It is broadcast on 105.3 FM on Wednesdays at 11.00 a.m. and repeated Sunday at 10.00 a.m. It's also available via the internet at any time on www.10radio.org. This Week: With the assistance from members of the congregation of St Peter's, Langford Budville, Preb. Helen Stainer, from the Trinity-All Saints benefice, leads our act of worship, reminding us of the importance of the Trinity. We also look towards a closer examination of the Nicene creed as it celebrates its 1700th anniversary this year.
